Short Bio

Austrian native Eva Kastner-Puschl enjoys a vibrant performing career throughout Europe and the U.S. as both a classically-trained mezzo-soprano, pianist and actress, performing as soloist and with renowned ensembles. In addition to her classical training, she indulges in cross-over and jazz.

Ms. Kastner-Puschl holds a private voice and piano studio in Princeton, NJ in addition to being on the voice and piano faculty at the Westminster Conservatory of Rider University. She holds an M.M. in Voice Performance and Pedagogy from Westminster Choir College, a diploma in Music and Instrumental Music Education from the University of Music and Performing Arts in Graz, Austria, and a master's degree in International Business from Karl-Franzens University.

She loves to share her musical gift, and desires most of all to inspire in her audiences the same great passion for music she herself feels.
